(1) Describe the purpose of this DoD information system or electronic collection and briefly describe the types of personal information about individuals collected in the system.

Command (CECOM) has identified the need to more efficiently communicate with and more easily account for civilian and military personnel and contractors during emergency and non-emergency situations across various geographical locations. Manpower Information Retrieval and Reporting System (MIRARS) allows for the identification of the location of employees/contractors/military personnel on duty status for emergency notification purposes and to manage home and contact information. Additionally, the system can assist in emergency situations to identify location of employees on non-duty status if the employee chooses to provide optional information. Each employee is expected to report his/her work status i.e. in office, telework, on TDY, etc.

The types of PII collected military, personal, employment, and work related information.

(2) Briefly describe the privacy risks associated with the PII collected and how these risks are addressed to safeguard privacy.

Risk: PII location

Mitigation: PII data is maintained in a controlled facility. Physical entry is restricted by the use of locks, guards, and is accessible only to authorized personnel. Facility is equipped with alarms, cameras, and personnel around the clock.

Risk: Electronic access via username/password

Mitigation: Users must authenticate against Army Knowledge Online directory and follow Army policy for changing passwords.

Risk: Electronic access to records

Mitigation: Access to records is limited to Person(s) with an official need to know who are responsible for servicing the record in performance of their official duties. Access to computerized data is role-based and further restricted by passwords, which are changed periodically.

h. With whom will the PII be shared through data exchange, both within your DoD Component and outside your Component (e.g., other DoD Components, Federal Agencies)? Indicate all that apply.

The Command will be able to send help/provide assistance to those in need during emergency situations.

(2) If "No," state the reason why individuals cannot object.

j. Do individuals have the opportunity to consent to the specific uses of their PII?

Yes

No

(1) If "Yes," describe the method by which individuals can give or withhold their consent.
