b. If "No," ensure that DITPR or the authoritative database that updates DITPR is annotated for the reason(s) why a PIA is not required. If the DoD information system or electronic collection is not in DITPR, ensure that the reason(s) are recorded in appropriate documentation.

c. If "Yes," then a PIA is required. Proceed to Section 2.

SECTION 2: PIA SUMMARY INFORMATION

a. Why is this PIA being created or updated? Choose one:

- New DoD Information System
- Existing DoD Information System
- Significantly Modified DoD Information System

(2) Cite the authority for this DoD information system or electronic collection to collect, use, maintain and/or disseminate PII. (If multiple authorities are cited, provide all that apply.)

(a) Whenever possible, cite the specific provisions of the statute and/or EO that authorizes the operation of the system and the collection of PII.

(b) If a specific statute or EO does not exist, determine if an indirect statutory authority can be cited. An indirect authority may be cited if the authority requires the operation or administration of a program, the execution of which will require the collection and maintenance of a system of records.

g. Summary of DoD information system or electronic collection. Answers to these questions should be consistent with security guidelines for release of information to the public.

(1) Describe the purpose of this DoD information system or electronic collection and briefly describe the types of personal information about individuals collected in the system.

TC-AIMS II is a critical deployment and transportation system that provides transportation agents and deploying units a joint capability to automate the process of planning, organizing, coordinating and controlling deployment, redeployment and sustainment activities, worldwide, in peacetime, war and actions other than war.

TC-AIMS II provides in theater support for onward movement and in transit visibility data. The TIS Enterprise provides users with world-wide access to the following applications: the Transportation Coordinator-Automated Information for Movement System (TC-AIMS II), Automated Air Load Planning System (AALPS), Transportation Coordinators'-Automated Command and Control Information System (TC-ACCIS), and Transportation Information Systems-Theater Operations (TIS-TO). The TIS Enterprise consists of three environments: Regional Access Nodes (RANs), Enterprise Management System (EMS), and Engineering and Test environment.

PII information stored can include personal, medical, employment, educational, and military information.

(2) Briefly describe the privacy risks associated with the PII collected and how these risks are addressed to safeguard privacy.

The TC-AIMS II installation consists of Citrix Secure Gateway, web servers, database servers and application servers. All servers are configured with Microsoft Windows Server 2003 R2 and hardened with the latest Army Gold Master (AGM) and the appropriate DISA Security Technical Implementation Guides(STIGS). The external users access the enterprise via the web using Hypertext Protocol with Secure Sockets Layer (HTTPS). Information exchange between applications and database is performed by many Virtual Local Area Networks(VLAN). PD TIS implements a Defense in Depth strategy and a restrictive network architecture that only allows authorized traffic. TC-AIMS II is located in a secure facility which has 24/7 monitoring and access controlled server room, and cameras throughout the facility.

Internal and external risks are associated with the protection of PII; however, risks are minimized to an acceptable level. Safeguards are employed to detect and minimize unauthorized disclosure, modification, and/or destruction of data; thus the risk to the individual's privacy to be minimal.
